March 2017

Noyes Treasure

This edition is a bit delayed for very good reason – my first granddaughter wanted to stay in my daughter’s tummy for as long as possible! On March 6, 2017, Makenzie Lee Brandeis was born. Yes, her initials are MLB! I tried to take the credit for that, but my daughter and her husband are as big of baseball fans as I am. Makenzie weighed eight pounds, seven ounces and was almost 21 inches tall. Both Makenzie and mommy (Krystal) are doing wonderfully. Jacob is so thrilled to be an uncle!

When it comes to treasures, kids and now grandkids are the most precious treasure one can ask for. Almost every day, a new beginning occurs when kids and grandchildren are involved. It is like Springtime every day! I look forward to shining those golden coins so they shine for the world to see.

Treasure your kids and grandkids. If you haven’t spoken with them for a while, reach out to shine their coin – not only would they become brighter, you would too!

A Business Gem

With baseball season upon us, I thought it would be best to highlight a family-owned business that has been making sports fields beautiful for decades – Clearwater’s own TLI Sports.

Charles “Charlie” Meeks is the founder and owner of TLI Sports. Charlie developed a passion for the industry during this tenure as manager for the United States Olympic Soccer Team from 1979 to 1985. Today, the company is still going strong with the help of his children, Greg Meeks and Shannon Moyles.

TLI Sports understands the positive impact sports have on the lives of kids and know that sports teach the values of honesty, adhering to rules, interacting as a teammate, and having respect for ourselves and others. This is why they want to provide kids (and adults) safe and enjoyable areas to participate in sports. TLI Sports’ passion is for the growth and life skills that sports facilitate in a young person and member of a larger community. They do this locally, nationally and even internationally. From Tropicana Field and other MLB parks to the Clearwater Threshers fields and other fields for minor league teams to the batting cages for both Clearwater and Largo Little League fields, TLI Sports has provided their expertise.

TLI Sports also believes in giving back. They proudly participate with groups like the Pirates Charities which provide young people the opportunity to be a part of a team and take part in sports. In addition to charities, TLI consistently sponsors youth sports teams and leagues.

If you know of someone who needs batting cages in their backyard or a school or company that needs help with design and/or installation of just about any sporting facility, give family-owned TLI Sports a call at 727-442-2570. Also, check out their great work on their website, www.tlisports.com.

Family owned businesses are treasures in our community. If you know of a family owned business that deserves a spotlight, please let me know at matt@matthewnoyes.com.

Client Crystal

Congratulation to past client, Matthew Wood, for winning two tickets to Nashville Live at Ruth Eckerd Hall.

Periodically, I will have drawings for tickets for past and present clients to win. It may be movie tickets, show tickets or baseball tickets. For a better chance to win, make sure we have your current email address. If you are not sure that we have your current email address, simply email me your current email address. For an even better chance to win, become my friend on Facebook (Matthew Noyes) because the raffle opportunities often show up on Facebook as well.

With a new Tampa Bay Rays baseball season quickly approaching, please be reminded that I enjoy giving my two tickets (front row in left field) away to past and present clients. If you want to be on the call list for when tickets come up, send me an email at matt@matthewnoyes.com or call my office at 727-796-8282. It may be for tickets that day or a few days later so let me know if you would enjoy the opportunity to enjoy my Rays tickets.

As a reader of Treasures, I want to offer you a little treasure for you and your pets.

After a car accident or other injury, you have enough to worry about. You should not have to worry about your pets at home. I have created a card to keep in your wallet or car that informs everyone that you have pets at home. This card provides the name and telephone number of the emergency pet caregiver. If you are injured in a car accident, the card tells others to notify the pet caregiver so your pets are safe and taken care of.

If you would like one or a few of these cards, simply send me an email at matt@matthewnoyes.com or call my office at 727-796-8282. We will be happy to send them to you as a gift from us.

Know a Treasure?

I am on the search for more local treasures. Do you know a treasure in your family or in our Tampa Bay community? If you wish to share by having me spotlight your treasure in an upcoming newsletter, send me the information through MatthewNoyes.com or email me at matt@matthewnoyes.com.

If I use your treasure in an upcoming Treasures newsletter, you will receive two tickets to a Tampa Bay Rays game.

Have fun finding those treasures!

Focus on Community Riches

Thank you for taking a break from the Spring weather and anticipation of a new baseball season to read this edition of Treasures. This edition announces one of the best treasures that anyone can announce – the birth of my first grandchild. Family is truly a treasure! Take a look inside to see a picture of my beautiful granddaughter.

The birth of a grandchild, a new baseball season, and Springtime all have new beginnings associated with it. Many times, we focus on what is new and forget to appreciate what has been around to create the new adventures. Grandchildren are here because we first had children to create them. You cannot look at a new baseball season without looking at what the team and players did last year. Lastly, the spring flowers are because the plants and trees were able to rest and restore during the winter. So, new is new because of the past.

This reminds me to appreciate my retired partners – Guy Perenich, Bob Carroll and Jay Avril

-- and my present partners – Mark Perenich and Bryan Caulfield. Their past dedication made our law firm the first personal injury law firm in Tampa Bay. Together, we continue to experience new adventures because of the past and present dedication of all the attorneys in the office.

I would be amiss to forget to thank all of the past and present clients that have continued to bring me new adventures. Every referral from a past client is like the first day of Spring. Thank you to the past and present clients who have brought me new beginnings through their referrals.

Springtime is full of new treasures. If there is someone you know who deserves a spotlight in an upcoming edition of Treasures, please let me know by emailing me at matt@matthewnoyes.com or calling me at 727-796-8282.

Enjoy the articles inside this edition of Treasures and all the treasures in your life and throughout Tampa Bay!
